sending news, newsletter or invitations to future Global Health EDCTP3 JU events. The Global Health EDCTP3 Newsletter Data Protection Notice can be found here.

3. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Personal data is processed by Global Health EDCTP3 JU to facilitate the organisation and management of the Global Health EDCTP3 Info Day, and to coordinate any necessary follow-up activities. This includes ensuring accountability and fulfilling communication, transparency, awareness, education, and promotional objectives.

Specifically, the processing is required for registering participants and providing logistical support before, during, and after the event. It also covers taking and distributing minutes, disseminating agendas, presentations, or reports, and publishing content on the web or other media channels, including streaming.

In order to register, participants need to use the B2Match tool.

In case participants would also like to participate in the networking activities organised by Global Health EDCTP3 JU, they have the possibility to create profiles on the B2Match platform. The B2Match platform is suggested as a tool by Global Health EDCTP3 JU to all relevant stakeholders and potential applicants who would like to interact and explore collaboration opportunities in view of Global Health EDCTP3 JU calls for proposals, and aims to be a networking space that is open for months until call deadlines.

The objective is to establish a networking platform where potential beneficiaries upload their expertise and needs, meet with other potential beneficiaries, and explore opportunities for collaboration. The personal data collected through this process is used solely for the purpose of facilitating these networking activities, ensuring that participants can engage effectively and receive relevant information.

All data collected through the B2Match platform is handled in accordance with applicable data protection laws, ensuring fairness, legality, and careful management of personal information.

When registering, you sign up to B2Match's terms of service and privacy policy, and you are requested to take notice of this data protection notice. You can cancel your registration in B2Match and delete your data anytime by following these steps.

The anonymised and aggregated data of the participants will also be used for statistical purposes in the Global Health EDCTP3 JU annual activity report of the year of the networking activities in which the applicants participated.

You can also provide your consent in order to subscribe to the Global Health EDCTP3 JU newsletter. You can give your consent via a clear affirmative act by ticking the box on the online registration form. For more information and to withdraw your consent, please see the Global Health EDCTP3 JU Newsletter Data Protection Notice that can be found here.

You can also provide your consent in order for the Global Health EDCTP3 JU to use your data to contact you for future events and networking activities. You can give your consent via a clear affirmative act by ticking the box on the online registration form. You can withdraw your consent to the event registration at any time by sending an email to the DPO at data-protection@global-health-edctp3.europa.eu

Lastly, for statistical purposes also, Global Health EDCTP3 JU will invite attendees to complete an anonymous feedback survey built on EU Survey. Please find the relevant data protection notice here.

4. Categories of data subjects

The processing of personal data concerns the persons registered in Global Health EDCTP3 JU Info Day.

5. Which personal data do we collect and further process and on which legal grounds?

Before, during, and after, Global Health EDCTP3 JU processes participants' identification data to organise and manage the event effectively as well as for statistical purposes and networking purposes to increase the effectiveness of the event.

The data to be processed for the registration and participation to the Info Day registration are the following:

- Identification data: such as, Name, Surname, Country
- Professional data: such as, Organisation's country, area of work, role
- Contact details: such as, Email address
- Usage and technical data: such as, IP addresses

The lawfulness of this processing activity is based on explicit consent provided by the data subjects Article 5.1(d) of Regulation 2018/1725. You can withdraw your consent at any time by sending an email to the DPO at data-protection@global-health-edctp3.europa.eu

Additionally, in case a participant wants to participate also in the networking during the Info Day, the following data are requested through the B2Match platform:

- Organisation's country, category, area of work and previous experience with international projects of the organisation
- Opinion and review by the participant of the event and networking organised by Global Health EDCTP3 (as provided voluntarily by the participant)
- Information about the participant's professional expertise and collaboration interests (as provided voluntarily by the participant in their profile on B2Match)

The lawfulness of this processing activity is based on explicit consent provided by the data subjects Article 5.1(d) of Regulation 2018/1725. You can withdraw your consent at any time by sending an email to the DPO at data-protection@global-health-edctp3.europa.eu

Personal data is primarily obtained directly from participants. Any data received from third parties is disclosed to the individual or communicated by the third party as required.

Due to the nature of the technical infrastructure used for the event, please be informed that during the event, all participants connected online to the event can see the name and the email addresses of the other connected participants.

6. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

The accessibility of personal data is strictly controlled based on the type of data and the purpose for which it is processed. Access to this data is granted solely on a need-to-know basis, ensuring that only authorised personnel within Global Health EDCTP3 JU communication Team (including administration and finance unit) and IT teams have the ability to view or handle the information. This policy helps to protect the confidentiality and integrity of your data, minimising the risk of unauthorised access.

The Info Day will be video recorded via MS Teams. The recording will be published online on YouTube. Pictures, presentations, and audio-visual recordings of speakers will be made available to the public on the internet on Global Health EDCTP3 social media channels (Bluesky, LinkedIn, X and YouTube).

Additionally, by your registration, your profile information (expertise and collaboration interests) will be visible to other registered participants on the B2Match platform for the purpose of facilitating networking and collaboration.

Furthermore, your personal data may be disclosed to specific external organisations that play a crucial role in the management and delivery of our services. These organisations provide foundational support and services for the purpose of sending news, newsletter or invitations to future Global Health EDCTP3 JU events.

7. How long do we retain your personal data?

Your data is securely retained for a period of one year following the last follow-up action of the event, or alternatively, it will be kept until you decide to withdraw your consent, whichever comes first.

In case, you have also subscribed to the Global Health EDCTP3 newsletter, your e-mail address is processed from the moment you subscribe to our newsletter until you request to be taken off from our mailing list. Your IP addresses used for each action (subscribe, confirm, unsubscribe) are also erased when the email address is deleted

This retention period ensures that Global Health EDCTP3 JU can maintain accurate records for operational and regulatory purposes while respecting your right to control the use of your personal information. Upon the conclusion of this retention period, the data is permanently deleted.

For the retention policy of B2Match platform, please see their privacy policy: <https://www.b2match.com/privacy-policy>

8. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

Global Health EDCTP3 JU implements the following technical and organisational measures to safeguard your personal data:

- Staff dealing with this processing operation is designated on a need-to-know basis
- Appropriate technical and organisational security measures, giving due regard to the risks inherent in the processing and to the nature of the personal data concerned

9. Transfer to a third country or international organisation

We process your personal data within the European Economic Area (EEA).

For any potential international data transfers and applicable transfer mechanisms for the use of Microsoft services, please visit the privacy statement of Global Health EDCTP3.

In exceptional circumstances, transfers to third countries may occur when Global Health EDCTP3 JU uses external service providers whose infrastructure or sub-processors may be located outside the EEA.

In such situations, personal data (e.g. user interaction data or publicly available profile information) may be processed by these providers outside the EEA, including in the United States.

Where such transfers occur, they are subject to appropriate safeguards in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, such as the use of Standard Contractual Clauses adopted by the European Commission or other applicable transfer mechanisms provided under EU data protection law.

10. What are your rights and how to exercise them?

As 'data subject' you have, under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, specific rights. In particular:

- You have the right to request access to all personal data processed by us pertaining to you.
- You have the right to rectification, i.e., to ask that any personal data pertaining to you that are inaccurate, be corrected.
- You have the right to withdraw your consent for processing of your personal data.
- You have the right to erasure, i.e., to request that personal data pertaining to you be deleted if these data are no longer required in the light of the purposes outlined above in Heading 3.
- You have the right to restriction instead of deletion, i.e., to request that we limit the processing of your personal data.
- you have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing of data, including profiling, if such decision has legal effect on him or her, except for certain situations, such as entering a contract (as required by articles 14-16 and 24 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725).
- You have the right to data portability, i.e., to receive from us in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format all personal data you have provided to us if the processing is based on your consent or a contract with you and the processing is carried out by automated means.

Information on action taken on the data subject's request to exercise her/his rights shall be provided without undue delay and in any case within one month of receipt of the request.

In case of complex or voluminous requests, this period may be extended by another two months, in which case the JU will inform the data subject.

If you would like to exercise your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, or if you have comments, questions or concerns, or if you would like to submit a complaint regarding the collection and use of your personal data, please feel free to contact the DPO of Global Health EDCTP3 JU by post (postal address TO-56, B-1049, Brussels, Belgium) or by email at data-protection@global-health-edctp3.europa.eu

The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS)

If you consider that your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the Global Health EDCTP3 JU, as a data subject, you have a right to recourse to the European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS) at any time by e-mail to edps@edps.europa.eu or a letter to the EDPS postal address marked for the attention of the EDPS DPO:

European Data Protection Supervisor
Rue Wiertz 60
B-1047 Brussels
BELGIUM
